

Morse code is no longer a valid means in the determination of the operational skills needed for amateur radio operation. I oppose this petition because it seeks to continue this operation mode as a requirement for licensure as an amateur radio operator.